

WE HELP MILITARY SPOUSES MAXIMIZE THEIR TALENTS.

Kaplan Continuing Education (KCE), a participant in Military Spouse Career Advancement Accounts (MyCAA) program, is proud to support the educational pursuits of military families. We are committed to providing quality and accessible training and development to today's military spouses to help them pursue their academic and professional goals.¹

KCE offers online, self-paced professional certificate programs. By taking advantage of these specialized programs, students are able to study anytime and anywhere. And, because our programs cost less than the $6,000.00 provided through the MyCAA program, you could have enough funds remaining to help you pursue additional training and education.

As a MyCAA student at KCE you may benefit from the following:

- MyCAA special pricing
- Programs that are less than $4,000.00 and include the cost of instructional materials*
- Dedicated MyCAA Advisors and support staff
